About California State University, Northridge (CSUN)

CSUN's 171 academic programs and centers enjoy international recognition for excellence. The university partners with more than 100 higher education institutions in 22 countries and attracts the largest international student population of any U.S. master's level institution.

- ✓ The David Nazarian College of Business and Economics – one of largest business schools in the U.S. – is accredited by AACSB, the world's largest network of business schools.
- ✓ The undergraduate degree programs in the College of Engineering and Computer Science are accredited by ABET (Accreditation Board for Engineering and Technology).
- ✓ The Tseng College of Extended Learning specializes in creating graduate-degree and professionally focused certificate programs as well as English-language and college-preparation instruction for international students.
- ✓ As a public university, CSUN delivers top-quality higher education for a tuition lower than those charged by private U.S. universities.

A True U.S.A. University Experience

- ✓ One of the largest universities in the United States, serving more than 38,000 students each year.
- ✓ Students are part of a multicultural community – both on campus and within the local area.
- ✓ CSUN students come from over 93 countries worldwide.
- ✓ CSUN's spacious, park-like campus covers 144 hectares.
